Session Description

In Session 336, Da Pah Kwan Yin San and Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San welcome you to the next installment of what was originally called The Solar Activations webinar. They share that, for the first time in recorded history, it has become possible for Da Hanaloa San, a.k.a. the consciousness of the planet Venus of this solar system, to enter into direct communication with humankind.

This fascinating Session will keep you on the edge of your seat with never before disclosed, mind blowing information, which is vital for your understanding of how this reality came into being.

What can be seen from a 3D perspective, in which Venus is observed by science as an uninhabitable planet with a hellish atmosphere, devoid of any life forms, is, in fact, – in Da Hanaloa San's words – “a portal into all dimensions of time and space, all dimensions of akeneic expansion, and into the holographic fractal that we know as the multiverse, in which we sit.”

Antiquated belief systems are blown to smithereens when Da Hanaloa San reveals its reasons for becoming part of our solar system and tells you about the 35.000 year battle that has been fought to avoid a cosmic matrix from locking us down completely. Da Hanaloa San further elucidates the concept of sexuality as a way for humans to rise above the physical reality and as a main means of communication for Gaia with other planetary consciousness.

Furthermore, Da Hanaloa San explains that astrology was created to keep human consciousness stuck in a matrix loop and urges the student to understand that these things “can only, by default, be the result of believing in an external field that we call the ‘physical universe’ with all of its physical laws to begin with.”

This Session delivers many compelling perspectives that will allow the student to see the need to step beyond any and all belief systems and limitations, as each and every one is to learn what the liberation of All Life – and not only on this planet – truly means. “It is time,” Da Hanaloa says, “to do the honorable thing and let the master emerge.”

Other Topics Include

- The meaning of the words Hono, Hana and Loa
- Why Mercury was a failed matrix
- Levity through expanding love force
- Merging of left and right brain hemispheres
- Humans unable to travel through the Hana Loa portal
- The different use of sexuality by dark and light forces
- The sacred and personal experience of entering the 1044 possible vectors of the Hana Loa portal
- The Hono portal and Hono space
- The function of climactic orgasm
- The watcher watching the watchers
- The act of Hanaloa
- Hanaloa field will trigger our 12 ascended senses
- The reason for ascended teachers
- The inverted geometrical structure in the left brain, called personality

Originally Titled: "The Solar Activations, Part 3" | AscendoSphere Webinars

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Hello everybody, and welcome to episode 3 of the Solar Activations Webinar for AscendoSphere.com. It is such a joy to be here with you all as usual, consciousness pioneers and intrepid ascension explorers, and it is an even greater joy to be here with Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San as my cohost today!

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Oh, the joy is really to be with all you guys and have these wonderful things happening. It was such a humungous thing last time, and now we have a different energy in store today. No doubt just as magnificent. So, really glad to be with you today.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: I am actually glad to hear that you survived yesterday's... well not yesterday's but the earlier episode with Da Leia San, the Sun. It must have been quite something. I mean, I can imagine what it was like for you, given that I could feel the energy come through me and you were balancing all of that for everybody out there. What was that like? Have you done this before? Once or twice maybe?

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: It has often been said that with the music that one of the things that was happening, was to balance the energies like that, but this was very different. It felt very different and quite intense. Very fast and a very light feeling — but very intense and a bit dizzying as well. I can understand the need for balancing with something like that. I can understand why it helps to have that.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes, that is one thing when you work with tonal energy like that or with tonality, I should really say, it is very difficult to place it within a time/space frame or even within a space/time frame. It doesn't fit in that sort of a continuum, you know. And this is what is, of course, happening to all of us. It is not just our beloved sun Leia San that is experiencing this or Da Gaia San or the other beings that you will still meet in the course of this webinar, but it is also our own consciousness, not only the consciousness of our shared Merkavah that is going through this, but also each of us individually. And while you could say that our collective tonality that is the Imzaia Merkavah — which we then lovingly tend to call 'the AscendoSphere' — while you could say that that type of an energy is collective and, therefore, unified and, therefore, exactly the same in each and every one of us, as the holographic induction, of course, causes those sorts of thing to happen, the individual point of consciousness that you are is a different story altogether. And then, the experiences that you have all been going through since the start of the Solar Activations and maybe even before that will all be very unique and very much inclined to follow the pathways that you have established within your own neural nets and within your own energy bodies over the years. And, of course, at that moment in time, where we are now really, it becomes important the work that you have done on yourself in times past or the work that you haven't done on yourself in times past starts to truly matter.

This is what we experienced and this is also what Leia San explained during our previous episode of this webinar when she spoke of the field that would now be created, where on the one hand of the field you would have those amongst us that would easily move through everything that we are currently moving through as we are entering and penetrating deeper into tonal space, while another group would actually find some more intense experiences. I have explained this quickly in my 2.1 update/Session 335 that we put out the other day, but today, I would like to take it a little bit deeper, so that you understand even better what you have been going through.

Rebalancing of the Tonal Field

And before I even do that, I should mention that since our update from January 6th, which was yesterday, we have actually noticed quite a rebalancing and quite a redistribution of the tonal field. So, whatever every one of you has been doing — and I could, of course, mention each and every one of you, as I have been observing everything that has been happening within the Merkavah, but whatever all of you have been doing, truly has had some empowering effects, which is also why, today, we have been receiving a number of emails of people that were telling us that they were doing quite a bit better, weren't they?

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yes, and that is nice to see because that turbulence is obviously calming down now, and that has got to be largely due to the efforts that you have put in. The time you spent reflecting, going inside, meditating, doing the exercises, definitely feels way more balanced today.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Exactly. If you imagine the Imzaia Merkavah as a Flower of Life grid, which has been explained, of course, by Da Merkaia San all the way back in June of 2015 I believe, then you can imagine each point of that Flower of Life grid being a Merkabah, which is the Merkabah that you in your true akeneic field have around you at all times.

Now, if you take that entire picture together, all those individualized Merkabahs connected to this Flower of Life energy, then at the heart, if you will — which is not truly the center, of course, but the point of shared consciousness observation and perspective that we collectively have — then at the heart of that Merkavah, you would see the infinity symbol moving at spin field. You would see this in either two dimensions or in three dimensions, based on your perspective at the time. If you see it within two dimensions, then you would literally see the infinity sign that you have all come to know and love over the years. If you do it in three dimensions, then you would literally see the torus field in the center of that Merkavah. And in the center of that torus field, you would see a sphere that in two dimensions would look exactly like the Yin/Yang symbol that everyone knows, of course, throughout the centuries, which would look very similar in a three-dimensional version of itself, but then once again representing a torus field of two energies, two, not polarities because I can't really say it like that, but two harmonizing tonalities that come together and cause the field to collapse and expand onto itself at infinitum.

So, that is truly what the Merkavah as an energy form, at least in three dimensions, looks like. When we go to the hyperspace dimensions and even anything that is beyond that, in akeneic space, then all forms and shapes are, of course, available if you will.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: It's a free for all!

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Then it is a free for all, exactly! So, I am explaining this, so that you understand that what we have been doing, is we have been booting up that system over time, and as we have been doing that, then this field, this infinity space, a torus field, was created, which is when the Merkavah truly comes alive. Also, within your Akene this is happening, and as Leia San has been explaining, this is also happening within the Leia systems, the heart or the star that is the core of each of your cellular points of energy and matter.

So, this has been happening everywhere. And depending on where you have been placing yourself on the scale of vibratory energy and mental energy and your remaining attachment to this planetary matrix and the cosmic matrix that was vastly being created in the last few decades, you will have had the experience on different sides of that infinity sign. Sometimes, in many cases, a lot of you will have even gone back and forth, back and forth, back and forth — maybe even so fast that you may not even have noticed the back and forth momentum at all and would imagine yourself in the center, which is, of course, when you start to move out of vibratory space and into tonal space altogether. It is about containing it all. That is what that comes down to. So, that is what has been going on, but gladly, we have been seeing results by all of you that you have been writing in to us that look very promising.

Again, I would like to remind you, of course, that we are not working on theory here. I am not just a being that sits here and tells you what is 'out there' in the multidimensional realms or in the tonal spaces, that goes and observes and then comes back and shares it with you all. No, that is not what we are doing. We are doing this together. We are moving through this together, alright? I just wanted to say that so that everybody is clear.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yes, that is why we are so often saying that we are grateful to have you with us. And the power of positivity among many, of course, is going to greatly enhance the field that we are working with — whether it is us two or another forty people here, that makes a huge difference, of course.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes, it certainly does.

Our Expanding Merkavah

Having said that, Pahdasan'ka, I would like to not again, of course, go through the list of all of the countries that are currently represented during this event because you are getting to know them by now I would imagine, but I will tell you that not only is Lemuria still with us today because they are very excited (I will tell you about that in a second), but I would also like to mention that we have a new country representing us today and it is Germany. So, welcome, Germany! Some people over there have just recently bought a ticket the other day and hopefully by now will have caught up with episode 1 and 2 and are joining us today live. And if that is the case, a very heartfelt welcome from us to you.

And I would also like to mention to all of you, as the Pahdasan'ka just said, the more of us there are doing this together, the stronger this field gets and, therefore, the easier the redistribution of energy also gets. What that means is that it becomes much easier and more comfortable for all of you, as we collectively carry more and more of this energy, which moves through us faster at that point because it has to be in more points at the same time, do you see? So, the more this field of the Flower of Life Merkavah expands, the easier it gets.

And in saying that, I would like to invite you, if you feel ready to do so, to talk to your friends and your spiritual explorers or co-adventurers on the path of ascension about what we are doing here and what we are creating here, how expansive this truly is and how practical this truly is, so that they, too, can join in in the experiences to come. Even when all five episodes will be complete, of course, this point of creation, this tonal sphere that is the Solar Activations energy, will be expanding forever truly, as more and more people will join over time because this particular event will remain available on Imzaia.World.

So, if you feel ready to do so, invite your friends to join in. Invite them to buy a ticket. And again, I want to remind everybody that it is not about trying to get as many attendees as possible. This is about building something that is as strong as possible and as expansive as possible, truly.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yes, and I would like to say thank you for taking the time to really go through these exercises and send in your experiences. It is fascinating. I think we have a completely positive upswing from if I am not mistaken, last time. There were lots of... it was a mixed bag really, but now it seems... the proof that you have sat there and taken it seriously and done the work. So, thanks.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes! Exactly. Exactly! And I am just going to go into a few of these experiences, shall I? Even just minutes before I activated the webinar system here today, I was reading through the chatroom on the Webinar Lounge, and also there we were seeing a lot of similar results, similar to what people have been sending in.

One thing that I would like to say generically, is that a lot of us, whether we were feeling the good side of this or the so called ‘negative’ side of this, a lot of us have been going through body aches and body pains — aching in the limbs; aching in places where it simply didn’t make sense — and I haven’t had the time yet to post something on the Webinar Lounge Forum, so I am just going to say it here: that certainly is the activation of these Leia systems or these tonal suns within your cellular structure. That is, literally, the activation, as they would say in ancient times truly, the true and full activation of your light body. But in doing so via the kakra system, it is bypassing the chakras. It is bypassing the meridians and all of these old systems that used to be in place and directly working in the field itself. In the past, what you would need to have such an experience, would, for instance, be a kundalini awakening or that sort of thing, which was very, very intense and very uncomfortable. And now that we are working via the kakra system and via the Leia energy, via the Leia systems truly, this is a very different experience, where you literally experience the similar situation as a child would when it is experiencing growing pains. You know, the bones that are growing. — We actually have, as many of you know, we have puppies here who are now almost a year old, Golden Retrievers, and we have seen them go through these things over the course of the year, and that is why it reminds me of this sort of an aching.

And another thing, it is not only Da Kim San from Austria, for instance, who has been reporting these things, but also Da Patricia Cardona San from Mexico — hello, both of you! — on the chat box was reporting aching in her body. And a lot of people have been going through it, including myself. I literally in the last couple of days — today it’s a little bit better — but in the last couple of days, I barely could make it down the stairs. At some point, I had two empty cups in my hand, in both of my hands anyway. I was walking down the stairs and I could literally only take one step at a time. I couldn’t even feel safe to just put one foot after the other. So, there is a lot going on!

Fluidity Experiences

And beyond all of that aching and all of that energetic weirdness, there have also experiences been reported regarding the external space, especially when people were doing Flower of Life Exercises or when they were doing ‘The Power of a Thousand Suns’ with Da Pah Ekara San or any of those exercises and also the creation of the Lemurian seed crystal. Many people go through these exercises and come out of it, experiencing not only the opposite of what we are used to, being that the world moves around us, rather than we move around in the world — that is what a lot of people are reporting — and also, another thing that people are reporting is an extreme fluidity of space, where they are becoming aware that the empty space, that supposedly is around us, is not around us at all. And even if it is or would be, it certainly isn't empty. As has been explained in the previous days of this broadcast, electromagnetic energy used to live there, which is now pure consciousness energy, which basically is taking over the function that the matrix would have in the past to separate objects, to separate things, people, events in time and in space. That is now being glued back together through pure consciousness tonality, purely via your perspective, and that is of course creating a large fluidity experience.

I am actually looking here... there is one that I definitely would like to share. It is by Da Yukia San here. This was a great experience that I definitely want to share, and thank you, Yukia San, for sending it in. She says, "In the last 30 minutes while listening, I still felt the pulse of the solar logos inside, like a blast in the heart kakra and the Akene, as well as in the third eye." She says between brackets, "A spin and a counter spin turbulence brought tears rolling down and a certain sadness." Now, that is what I have just explained, of course. It is that field flipping back and forth. And then she continues, "Upon walking, totally ungrounded and floor-less and spacey, I had to sit quickly and fell into the sofa that felt spongy, fluid, and watery. A sense of expansion around my field that stretches itself like an elastic infinity symbol," there you go! "Spinning vertically and horizontally quickly followed. Now, a heavy stillness is around me and just an incisive pressure top of the head center between the left and right brain, as if they are being snapped into one." She concludes, "Thank you for all the feedback. It assists and I am entering meditation now and feeling more the form of things."

So, welcome back in 3D, Yukia San. That is indeed what many of us have been trying to describe here in all of this time because there is so much going on, and especially what she says here about the sofa that all of a sudden felt spongy and fluid and watery. That certainly is, what we have explaining before, due to the fact that you are no longer sitting in the same substance. When you remain within the mental framework that is your mind structure, then everything will still pretend to translate as such, but as you are seeing, with a little bit of effort here, which you certainly have taken, you will start to see this dissolve, and reality truly is more fluid.

This is one of the things that actually have been reported by the fluid Lemuria through Da Pah Ekara San actually in the last couple of days, that they are starting to see bleed throughs, much like here on Earth, all over planet Earth, bleed throughs have been reported, haven't they? Cities that all of a sudden start appearing in the sky where there should be none, orbal objects, O.R.B. objects, that are appearing everywhere, but the same is also happening in other dimensions and especially beyond the dimensional range, which we consider the multidimensional reality that we sit in, but in the tonal realities as well, where, of course, we are reemerging everywhere at the same time. So, in all of these different spheres, people are reporting the same thing. That's pretty cool, I think myself!

So, maybe there was a Lemurian out there, Yukia San, who saw you fall into your couch for a moment and then you popped back out of his existence or her existence. That is very possible. Send us a postcard though if you do fully get there!

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: It is interesting to see how the time becomes irrelevant in the end and how it was back in the days of the fluid Lemuria where you literally could experience any timeframe you wanted. It seems to be coming closer again, that sort of thing. And these exercises just barely started!

Ascended Life's Merkabah Assists

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes, and then think about it. These exercises that we are doing now, we are doing virtually. We are using the Merkabah to connect to one another and create a space, indeed, where we are experiencing all of these things. But at some point, in the near future, we are going to be doing this within the same Merkabah field in physical reality. One thing that an Ascended Being through Eja'i Chi Pah exercises is capable of, is to expand the scope of its own Merkabah field. You know the difference between what is inside of the Merkabah and what is outside of the Merkabah, is that what is inside is either translated directly as matter, physical space, and energy, or as full akeneic space, depending on the reality that you are in — vibrational versus tonal universe. While what is on the outside of the Merkabah, or on the walls of the Merkabah, merely only translates as energy and, therefore, vibration and frequency that gets coded to appear as one linear reality.

So, from the perspective of Ascended Life, Eja'i Chi Pah exercises allow us to expand that Merkabah field, so that early students can actually step into this field and co-create it together. This is part of the inter-creational relationship, where effects happen much quicker than they normally would in your own Merkabah space, which is why, for instance, the Pahdasan'ka referred the other day to a point in 2009, right after my entry, where you were working on exercises such as changing the geometry of the flowers and, therefore, creating a different flower. The reason why that was working so quickly back then and other exercises you were doing — like exiting the matrix, let's say, via the solar body or the lunar body, depending — were working so quickly is because you were directly in Ascended Life's Merkabah field. That is actually how that goes.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: It hit me like a ton of bricks as well! It took me about 4 days to actually get over it.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Especially if you are not ready for it, expecting it.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yeah, an incredible difference, an incredible boost, of course.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Which is another example I remember. is when you and I once traveled to Amsterdam and you wanted to experience time travel, and we used one of your senses, namely sound in order to start doing this and by merely stepping into the same Merkabah space together and using one of the akeneic mudras, if you will (I am just using that word to make it easier to understand) and attached to the — because we were doing past time travel — to the back of the heart kakra, immediately, the transition started to occur. We actually enjoyed I think a jazz performance in the 1920s or something! Something like that.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Something like that, or the thirties.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: That was very interesting. Also, to hear the ships docking in that area where now the train station is and all of that sort of stuff.

But anyway. These things are, of course, going to become the norm for all of you. That is my goal and I will not rest until it is finished!

Da Jason San— hello, Jason San! — writes in with an experience. I am reading it because it is actually very recent. He says, “I really appreciate the update to Solar Activations 2.1./ Session 335. I just spent the last 24 hours awake for the first time in my life,” and I am sure that you weren't on anything either! Maybe tonal tripping, as they say. “I couldn't sleep,” he says, “no matter what I tried. A vibrating or pulsing in my left ear kept going all night long and I couldn't fall into the zone of my body letting go into sleep. I was wondering,” he says, “what was wrong with me, but that message you put out really put my mind at ease.” I am really glad to hear that you are relaxed about it all because it can be a little freaky, especially if you are not choosing to have an out of body experience in the form of taking a drug or a shamanic ritual or anything like that, but if it's just happening this way. That's, of course, quite something.

It reminds me that I have been wanting to tell all of you that, very often in the Imzaia Work, we talk about meditation, but I need you to understand that when we are using that word, what we really mean is 'ekaraia.' And ekaraia, which is a Lemurian word once again, is actually an Ascension Exercise, which is a bad translation I'll grant it, but what I really want to say, is an exercise that goes beyond the reality that you are currently in. So, that is really what is happening. You are doing active meditations here, using the active ingredients of love, joy, freedom, truth, and life to manifest these things directly in your reality.

Some Questions Answered

So, not being able to sleep for 24 hours that is not unusual if you consider the amount of energy that was being pumped — and probably still is being pumped — through you, Jason San, as the Leia systems are activating, bypassing all of the old fields: the chakra field, the kundalini energy, the awakening of the third eye that some people claim needs to happen — all of this just switches on like a great big spot on a stadium at the same time. So, no wonder you couldn't sleep! I am actually pretty happy that that is all that happened for you because some people have a little bit more going on with them.

I have a question here from Da Wenche-Mari San. Hello, Wenche-Mari San. It is nice to hear from you again. She says, “Da Leia San in the previous episode talked about not forgetting to release when we are finished with her exercise of creating the Lemurian seed crystal. Can you explain this a little more?” Well, in a very brief answer that I can give you to that question, Wenche-Mari San, is what I think Leia San meant to say there is that when you are working with tonal geometry and, therefore, a geometry that is going to be moving from shape to shape at least at a rate of 1044 tones or shapes in less than one of our linear seconds, you are going to be experiencing a very high tonal rate of energy. And the only thing in that moment that is still keeping you physical in this reality and, therefore, visible and, therefore, within the same translation field that everyone else has around you, is the mental structure, therefore, the Akonai-da that is doing that, the head kakra that is doing that for you. And as you are working on an exercise of this nature, your own tonal field, your own geometrical structures within your three kakras are also going to be rotating at that exact same speed in order to go to the creative potential or the creative ability that you as a creator being have.

So, when the exercise is done, you need to release the tonal spin, both in the object that you are trying to manifest and in your three kakras, so that it can actually settle into this dimension. So, in other words, what Leia San is really saying is, you've got to come back down. You've got to come back down into vibrational space because you don't have to leave — compared to the old ascension training of the past — you don't have to actually leave this vibratory matrix in order to fully ascend in it. What you have to do simply is to make sure that you are also vibrating here, that you are also translated here. And tonal energy, the tonal spherical system, as you will learn in New Earth Reality Mechanics in times ahead, can easily emit a vibratory pulse, which reaches beyond its own boundaries so that the tonal field inside of your Merkabah is not experiencing any vibratory rate, but the field is still translating inside of the vibrational universe. Do you understand what I am trying to say here?

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yes, I think so. Is it what used to be called 'in-scension' instead of 'ascension'?

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes, basically, that is a good analogy here.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: I understand that it is in both basically, simply put.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes, simply put, indeed. Basically, it is being in this world but not of this world, if you want to translate into a Jeshua-ism.

We have, of course, a lot of people here with us tonight. Da Coca San is with us once again, who writes, "Ready for expansion, popcorn and all!" she says. "I love you." It's a private joke that we have. She always talks about that popcorn. That's really cool.

Da Ami San is also here with us, expressing that she is feeling the love force. She is saying, "Is anyone feeling energized? And I mean ENERGIZED!" She says, "Whoa, this one feels so powered up! Unbelievable. And temperatures here went to above 40 degrees." Because, of course, she is in South Africa, where currently our Merkavah is experiencing summer.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: It is quite some serious summer it sounds like as well.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: It sounds like quite a summer. She says, "I shocked my helper today at the warp speed that I got chores done, and many, many chores done in the intensity of the heat." She says, "Hair plastered to my skull, clothes sticking to my body — nothing could shake me off center." She says, "I was comfortable in all of the intensity." And isn't that cool? She also won in the lottery, she says. That is great!

What great experiences people are having. This is sort of what is starting to happen to us now. This is why actually I am glad that I explained the previous answer to the question before I read your comment, Ami San, because that is exactly what you are going to start experiencing. While you are going to be part of the vibrational universe around you, whenever you choose to, you can step into that time/space frame. The inner space/time frame within your actual Merkavah is going tonal and has no need to function on those restrictions, which is basically a little bit... and I don't like to say this, but this is why, throughout the centuries, people have been reported to develop super powers, such as levitation and bilocation, telepathy, all of these things, while popping in and out of the physical universe. This has been reported in Tibet and in many other places, where people over the generations have gone through the ascension path, but it is merely because the space inside of you and the very localized space around your body is not vibrational anymore. And that is just a normal thing. That is just going to become the norm.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: It doesn't feel that far away actually.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: No, it certainly doesn't! It certainly doesn't. As I said, a lot of you are experiencing quite some wonderful things. I am going to read one, and then we are going to start making time to move into the channel, the lecture that is ahead. And we still have tons to go through here. So, we will see how we will get all of that to fit into the next episodes.

Experiences with the Exercises

This is Da Ciro San from Mexico. And he says (and I am going to skip to the important part here), he says, "I wanted to stay home after the second episode of the Solar Activations, which was a trip in itself, but I decided for a trip to the supermarket and to give Da Leia San's exercise a go. So, I put my earphones on," he says, "to listen to some music on the way, jumped on the bicycle, and as I start pedaling, Da Gaia San starts moving under the wheels to take me where I need to go. I saw a car cross my path and I asked myself, why isn't reality tearing apart? The world is moving under me in one direction and under that car in another direction. At that point," he says, "the vision of reality bubbles or reality spheres popped into my head," which is explained in SOV Session 330 by Solarys, previously titled 'The Three-Year Renewal', back in August 2015. "So," he says, "I get to the supermarket and as I am moving through the aisles, I open my angle of vision to try to widen my attention as much as I can. And the scene turns to one like you see in action videos, where the camera is fixed to a guy's helmet, and I am totally tripping. At this time, Koan's 'When the Silence is speaking' is playing in my head," he says, "I am experiencing a feeling of weightlessness and the joy must have been evident on my face.

To make a story short," he says, "I ended up going to the store three times. I was enjoying myself so much and was so distracted by the experience that I bought some items, got to the house and realized there were other things I didn't get. So, I went back and back again, and still some items were forgotten in the end. It was so interesting," he says, "to see other people having mundane lives, while in ours, Gaia San moves to take us places and we get to interact with beings like Da Pah Kwan Yin San, Da Pah Lao Tze San, Da Pah Ekara, San and Da Solarys San, to name but a few. We listen to the Sun tell us her name, dear Leia San. And maybe, just maybe, we will manifest a Lemurian seed crystal out of thin air. As Da Orchid San would say, "he concludes, "how amazing is that, guys? My deepest appreciation from the center of my heart to yours. Thank you."

Well, Ciro San, thank you for sharing this. This is quite amazing. This is quite powerful, don't you think?

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Well, it's really great to hear these stories. So great to hear that you are enjoying it so much. The experience is so brilliant! It's a shame to notice other mundane people around, but then if you can actually remember that you are in both of these spaces, there is an awful lot of joy you can impart to everyone else as well through this exercise and remembering that they are just as much a part of you as you are of them. I think it is brilliant. If, like you say, like people could probably see that joy on your face. That could do wonders, just to open up a smile to them and expand the field that way.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Of course, what I just said about the Merkabah space of akeneic or Ascended Beings, this is another exercise, of course, that we will start doing in the course of New Earth Reality Mechanics and also Ascension Basics on the Premium Zone of the AscendoSphere. So, you will certainly have that ability to start inviting others to step into your reality sphere, even if it is only briefly, to pick up what they can understand from there and to move back out of it.

So, also, I would like to say, never forget, that when in vibrational space, when you are observing other beings, you are only seeing a type of translation that is occurring. Sometimes within the old matrix paradigm, if the matrix wanted you to be in a low vibratory field, even though everyone else around you — let's say you are on a shopping street or something — everyone else around you might be experiencing sunshine and is laughing and smiling, while you might be experiencing rain and grumpy people everywhere. So, the translation of the old matrix systems did not allow for you to truly experience what was going on in another person's version of that same matrix field, you see.

Within the tonal energy that you are now stepping into, you will be able in the time to come to actually go back to that supermarket, do that very same experience over again and actually discard all of the false data that might be coming your way so that you can actually see, not only what is really happening to those beings, but also who is really there. Because you may very often think that people that you see around you a) are real, while in some cases they may not be, and b) are you, in many cases they might be, and c) they might be members of Ascended Life or other very close friends, soul family as it were, necessarily from the future at that point popping in to actually co-create your reality or to assist you in some form or fashion, you see. So, that is all going on here.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: All of the time.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: All of the time indeed, indeed.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: If it wasn't...

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Exactly. I am going to go into one more point here, which has been made by Da Orchid San because I asked the AscendoSphere crew to also send in some questions all the way back before the start of episode 1, actually, and Orchid San writes, “You spoke of Saturn being in a new relationship to planet Earth, and thus, how we look at our reality is changing dramatically.” She says, “With the influence of the Neptune energy,” and she is, of course, referring to the Neptune/Saturn square that happened in November and December, or started around that time of 2015, “reality is feeling much more fluid.” Again, you see? “I know what we call our ‘consensual’ reality is going to change, and it already is. Could you speak about this in practical terms, as it is clear that we are all able to create whatever we want. It is sure clear that we are learning how to navigate, what works and what doesn’t. How can we best assist ourselves and each other during this transition?”

It is a very good question and it ties in to what I was just explaining to Ciro San a minute ago, which is why I wanted to read these questions. Actually, the first thing I’ll say, Orchid San, is when I first read your question is at the very last sentence I accidentally read, “How can we best avoid ourselves and each other during this transition?” Instead of assist ourselves. That was just going on in my head. And, of course, that would be one way...

Da Pahdasan’ka Barak Solarys San: Hide!

Throwing of the Shackles of Belief Systems

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: ... to avoid yourself and each other during the transition, but given that that is not very possible on a planet of about 8 billion beings — and those are only the humans we are talking about, assisting yourself and assisting each other is truly going back to what I have said earlier, to step into that tonal energy. What you say here, is Saturn now being in a new relationship to planet Earth, that also means that Jupiter is in a new relationship to planet Earth, and that is the key reason why reality is becoming so fluid. Jupiter is a very fluid energy. Neptune is even worse on that level, if you will, but the reason why Neptune and Mars... sorry, why Neptune and Saturn have been so connected lately, is to actually shut down that signal that Saturn has been sending out.

And every time, as you have noticed during the episodes probably that I have mentioned Saturn, I have often mistaken it by mentioning Mars. The reason is that you will see that Mars and Saturn’s energy is so extremely alike, or at least it has been so extremely alike because during this entire matrix run, Saturn’s biggest influence has certainly been on Mars, which is why it is the planet that we think of today the planet of war, you see.

So, we are indeed learning how to navigate. Other ways of assisting ourselves and each other better during this transition, I would say to you to truly throw off the shackles of the belief systems that have bound you and to truly and sincerely take a step away from them, which isn’t necessarily just something that you do inside of yourself or within the mental realms. It is something that you actively participate in, which would then ultimately refer to you — anyone that is listening — fully stepping on the ascension path.

And this is something that I have been explaining in previous broadcasts, such as the 8:12:8 broadcast and even episodes of this webinar. I know that I am repeating myself on that level, but this is truly the time we are in. For many, many decades since the 1950s, 60s, 70s, and onward, people have been asking — humanity has been praying — for Ascended Life and inter-dimensional life to be here, to come and assist. And now we are here, and that means that it is time to move. It is time to answer the call that you have started yourself and put yourself on that vector. That's all I can really say about that.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Extremely well said, I would say! If that is all that you can say about it that it is pretty good.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Thank you about that. You know what, Pahdasan'ka? We already are about forty minutes in. It is going very quickly tonight and, on top of that, I still have tons and tons of these experiences and questions to go through, but why don't we leave those for future episodes? If need be, we will conclude the entire series with a 6th and final, unplanned episode, where all we will do is simply go through these experiences, questions and everything else that you have still sent in. That will be the last episode of the Solar Activations Series 1 anyway — which implies, if you didn't figure that one out already, that there is going to be a Solar Activations 2 and a Solar Activations 3 because since Leia San, the Sun, has started talking to us once again, all of these other planetary energies — way beyond Jupiter, Saturn and Venus — have basically said that they are interested in communicating as well, that they want to reconnect and rekindle the connection as well. And that is Mercury; we are talking Mars; we're talking Neptune; we're talking so many different bodies, of course, many of which you don't even know are actually in the solar system because they don't all manifest as physical matter, the way we think of physical matter. A lot of the so-called dark energy and dark matter that science is discovering within the universe will turn out, in the course of time, to be tonal space, to be part of tonal space. Bodies that exist either tachyonically or fully tonally in this realm, only in such a way that our vibratory rate, the ones that we have had anyway and their vibratory rate, do not cause an interference pattern and, therefore, were not visible to one another. This is what we mean that there are more dimensions and fields of reality within this particular third dimensional density that we are now leaving than you might even think — more than you might ever think, really. Anyway...

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: More than you could possibly imagine, probably more like it, I guess.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Indeed. I always have to laugh at that word.

I am going through the questions board here. Ami San is still with us. She thanks us for the explanation of the kundalini energy. She wondered about that and meant to ask, so I am glad that you didn't have to ask your question and that we got to answer it already.

Alright. I think it is time for me to shut this down and to open up to the energy that is the consciousness of Venus because that is who is going to be our special guest here today. I believe that this will go on for anywhere from forty minutes to an hour. As you will see, it is a very interesting energy. It will be very different than Leia San, than the Sun that we saw in the previous episode. And as such, I will not continue onward after the lecture that is going to come through for too long, as I am going to give you time to reflect upon this, to go into ekaraia about this. So, we will be back after this lecture for about five or ten minutes or so I think as we close.

I just made sure that all systems will continue to work nicely without interruption as we go into the next segment of today's episode.

Again, I am so glad that you are with us. I am very thrilled that you are going to be taking this journey with us.

So, why don't you all get comfortable, find the space within yourself that is cosmic, that is galactic – an area of you where distance doesn't matter, where time does not matter, space, age, birth and death do not matter; a space where you understand that these things are mere illusion, generated by a finite system that can no longer control you, can no longer hold you back. Allow that to happen. And while you do, continue to focus on the area that is your chest, the area within you that burns like a sun, and allow that field to replicate 1044 times, and let those duplicates of your Akene arrange themselves throughout your body in a coherent, balanced and energized Flower of Life pattern, through which the Leia system becomes active.

While we do this, focus on the solar system, all of that vastness of space that is around us, that surrounds Gaia, the space that we now know is our consciousness. So, you see, how easy the Lemurian connection to the solar system, the galaxy, the universe itself, truly is.

Maintain that field; and as you scan the solar system, see the space flashing through the geometric grid that you have now created throughout your body, equal points representing the central akeneic point. Watch the solar system flash by as though a projection on a movie screen... faster and faster and faster, until it finds a lock-on. That lock-on is a response to a calling that now arrives within you, the calling of Venus. Place Venus centrally in your chest and allow its energy to move up and down, into the head and into the belly at the same time.

Now, stay in that field. Breathe in that field. Focus within that field. Create within that field. Expand your consciousness within that field. While you continue to do this, I will now prepare to transfer the energy of Venus and be a conduit to it as it communicates.

So, namaste and I will see you on the other side.

Da Hanaloa San's Message

Da Hanaloa San: Welcome all, I am the energy known as Da Hanaloa San, or in your English terms, the consciousness of Venus. It is a true and sincere joy to be here with you tonight and to remain part of our tonal field as it expands in the times to come.

Hanaloa San be my name and let me explain this for a moment. You are used to the Lemurian word 'hono' already, and you know that that word means 'grounded, a material, physical, point of home.' Where this is true, the word 'hana' implies the tonal opponent, everything that is not physical, everything that is not bound to a central point of gravity. You would call it in your English terms 'the ether.' We would refer to it more as 'creative vision,' that space where imagination and dreams are born. That space that you perceive before reality does. That space that allows for manifestation within the tonal and akeneic hologram before it manifests in your physical reality that surrounds it. That space is known as 'hana.'

The second part to my name, which you would conceive of then in Lemurian as 'loa,' is one of the Lemurian translations of the word 'Lotus flower.' Now do not mistake the word 'loa' as a word that Lemurians would use as they point at a Lotus and would then say, "This is a loa." No. Loa is the word used in Lemurian to describe the geometry of the Lotus flower, or in other words, a geometry resembling the visual that you know on this planet Earth as a Lotus flower.

The reason why this second segment is part of my name as the consciousness of Venus is because in tonal space this is the geometrical form that you will see where now in the 3rd dimension you see my physical planetary body.

A lot of explanation will take place in the hour or less that is ahead, so, let us commence.

First of all, let me tell you that there is no such thing as a physical form of life on the 3rd dimensional density of the planetary Venus. The energy of Venus does not allow for a 3rd density incarnation to occur of any form because the consciousness of Venus, Hanaloa San, does not translate in this 3rd density form. The reason for this is very simple. The entire object that you know as a planet, in this case, is nothing but a portal into all dimension of time and space, all dimension of akeneic expansion and the holographic fractal that you know as the multiverse in which you sit.

Initially, when stepping through the hono portal, which would be at that point a physical manifestation before you enter hana space, you would notice a potential direction that will very much distract you. This is why the Venus grounds, as you would know them today as a physical manifestation, have been made off limits to body types such as your own. In hono space, it would simply be impossible for you to survive such a transition. Which is why the only direction available in the portal that is Venus from hono space, physical space, is the 4th dimension. Of course, this is why the Venusian energy was shut down. This is why energies rage on this planet, at certain vibratory rates anyway, that would make it impossible for any life, even protected life in the form of some sort of suit. Anything physical is not allowed there.

In hana space, however, when you master the Merkabah field, when you master the tonal torus field and you learn in the times ahead to journey with these, you will notice that arriving at the portal that is Hanaloo, that is the true consciousness of Venus, creates — you can guess it — a minimum of 1044 vectors. Where these vectors go, is up to the being entering the portal. So, that takes away a little bit of my potential explanation and ensures that we are not going to have this conversation for the next 19,5 hours.

1044 vectors to be explored by you. These vectors are to remain undefined and entry through Hanaloo San, through Venus, is indeed a very sacred and personal experience.

Da Gaia San's Call

In order for you to better understand this, I must explain [to] you the reason for my being part of your solar system. You see, I wasn't always. The planet known as 'Venus' and many other of your planets that you know of in your solar system were not part of the system, until such time, as the creation of the planetary matrix around Gaia. This is when the call was created by Gaian forces as the Sophian fall into planetary matrix existence occurred. A fall into a planetary matrix is usually very quickly followed up by an arrival in a cosmic matrix, a feat that in this particular planetary matrix, in which you have sat, has taken over 35'000 years to accomplish and still has not been accomplished.

This is the result of our battle. This is the result of our effort to stop what is happening to Gaia San and what is happening to you. And for over 35'000 years we have won this battle. So, it comes, of course, as no surprise to you that the final battle, which was fought not so long ago, starting in your linear year 2015, was also a successful one.

You will learn, as you speak to the consciousness of other pieces, other cosmic aspects within this solar system in the times ahead, that we all came with a very specific function to assist Gaia San in very specific ways. Much like the three kings brought gifts upon the birth of the so-called Jesus in your fictional story known as the Holy Bible, we brought gifts. We did not bring myrrh, or gold, or incense, or diapers, but we did bring active ingredients. We, I, Hanaloha San, among others, have been responsible to maintain the active ingredients within this solar system as long as they were forced externalized in the course of your matrix history. To be ‘forced externalized’ means that it is indeed impossible for active ingredients to exist in the inner realms. And as they were being pushed out of Gaia San’s creation matrix, we caught these pieces and held on to them. I, for one, was the one that caught the active ingredient known as Love. It was the first one to be thrown out, and I have always been a good catcher when it comes down to a pitch! So, I caught this and maintained it. It is this that caused the Lotus frequency to exist, the Loa frequency, as I have explained at the beginning of this talk.

Above that, I served another function and will continue to serve this function for a little while still. That function has to do with the hana side to my name, the nonphysical, the ether, the creative vision and the expansion side to my name. In your language you have a saying... it is more of a question, really. And the saying goes, “Who watches the watchers?” Now, I did. Being a spy for both sides of the coin, allowing a portal to 4th density, archetypal space, to exist within my field, allowed me to observe very clearly what was going on with your matrix. It allowed me to observe my friends being attacked, such as Saturn, heavily such as Mars, incredibly fast; such as Mercury, to the point that its density became so great that its own consciousness could no longer exist within its own core. A failed matrix, if you will.

I saw these things go on and I observed. I watched. I took note of what was going on. I worked with beings such as Karma on the one hand and Muse on the other to keep things balanced.

On top of all of this, all of us, as you will come to know, have introduced certain concepts within your lives, concepts that allowed you to remain connected to the larger tonal field, to which you are now returning. One of the main concepts introduced by me, Hanaloha San, is sexuality. Sex, an outcome of love in many cases — or at least one would hope — has been a tool for you to rise above the physical reality into dimensions that are more hana oriented, more ethereal — moments, fragments of experiences where, beyond time and space, you could reconnect to parts of the self, ever so briefly, of course, that would give you the life force to go on, to continue to manifest in this hellish situation over and over again.

Sexuality has been one of my main modes of communication through all of you and with all of you. The latter, of course, is a very direct form of communication, the former, working with sexuality through all of you, allowed Gaia San, via human consciousness, in these moments of climactic orgasm to pulse out messages, to communicate with us, with other cosmic aspects of herself and to keep us abreast of those situations that were unfolding, so that, once again, we could respond in karmic terms or in visionary terms, in contracting or expanding terms.

This is what sexuality on your planet has been about. It is why over the years, both parties of light and dark have worked with these energies. You are aware of such things as sacred sexuality, Kamasutra sexuality and such. At the same time, you are also aware of black magic sexual ritual and such, both intended to reach spaces that are not physical, but one, the so called life force side, would reach into dimensions that exist in the 5th and above, while the black magic sexual ritual side of things, would reach into 4th dimensional density, 2nd dimensional density and even 1st dimensional density.

Holding the Tachyonic Border

You see, from within the perspective of this solar system and its existence within the multidimensional field, I Da Hanaloa San, am placed firmly on the edge between 4th dimensional, archetypical density, and 5th dimensional, holographic density. I live alongside such beings that you know of as Da Lemuaya San, a tachyonic being of portalic service; a being that works very often with Da Pah Kwan Yin San and other beings of Ascended Life, as we hold the tachyonic barrier, which has always stood between planetary matrix awareness and unity consciousness.

We have indeed been observing the watchers. Before this time, before it became time for us to take our role with Gaia San to assist her in the process that she inevitably was going to be drawn into, we observed a very different space, created by the love consciousness of Leia San herself, ultimately, of course, leading back to Solaryan space, the Solarys Central Sun energy. We observed a space of balance, a space of playfulness, a space of expansion and growth.

But as the planetary matrix consciousness was placed orbiting your physical Earth, all of that changed. And when it did, with it came many items, many ways of being, many guidelines, many structures, societies ultimately that today we invite you to let go of. I will mention a few. You may not think it necessarily, but concepts such as the ones that can be found within your astrology, very often are only matrix concepts that should be thrown out together with the bathwater as early as you have the chance to dump those neural patterns that no longer serve you, that are dualistic and mental in nature.

Letting go of Matrix Concepts

One example of such would be your concept of the Zodiac system. You call yourselves a Scorpio or a Gemini or Pisces or any of these things. These are matrix concepts that are there to help your soul to survive and believe at the same time in a matrix structure that is 12 divided — not 12 unified and expansive, but 12 divided — a loop that goes round and round and within this loop, larger loops exist: The age of Pisces, the age of Aquarius and so on. On top of that, every single square, blood moon, trine, full moon, new moon, calendar that you have ever gone through, is part of that matrix system. Every retrograde that you have ever allowed yourselves to experience, is part of that same matrix system. And you have followed these things blindly. You have jumped through hoops in order to fit certain parameters, perspectives, what have you not. You have been careful not to enter into communication, to write letters, to sign business deals and so forth during Mercury retrogrades. You have given us, the planetary consciousness of your solar system, of which I, Hanaloa San, am one, so many rules and parameters that you wanted us to reflect back onto you that it could be considered quite insane that this is what you allowed to happen for yourselves.

From today onward, I urge you not to listen to any of these things, not to believe in any of these things, and rather to understand that they can only by default be the result of believing in an external field that you call the 'physical universe' with all of its physical laws and such to begin with.

On this journey of ascension and, before that, of exiting this matrix, you have often had the tendency to keep both of your feet firmly planted on either side of the fence. In many cases, the one foot would be strongly planted within the physical universe with all of its rules, obligations and concepts, and on the other hand, the other foot would be planted within the spiritual realms, where New Age quickly came to take your power once again away from you and create a cognitive dissonance persona type where you would think you are working on such things as expansion, as raising your vibration, but to what end? You would think that you worked on such things as understanding astrology, understanding the equinoxes, understanding all of these things, but to what end? It is a very simple end, to keep you locked into a loop, as a continuous battle was raging, as the net was caught and thrown over all of you, catching you all in the act of consciousness expansion, catching Gaia San in the act of consciousness expansion. And as the steps were being battled against to very quickly move you into this cosmic matrix that was awaiting you, these systems were designed to take all of your consciousness, all of your free will, all of your true and tonal beingness away from you. It created a veil that caused a lack of understanding, and you, unfortunately, got caught up in such in your desire to assist.

Of course, you knew that you would. You were aware that this was going to happen. You were also aware before you came here that beings such as myself existed, watching the watchers, observing, reporting back and forth and balancing and stabilizing where possible.

These cosmic aspects that we are, of course, also exist within yourself and, therefore, there is nothing and no one that will ever say that these same potentials, these same possibilities do not exist for you because, indeed, they do. What we do, you do. The steps we take, you take.

Dear human being, dear human aspect of myself, you will have probably noticed that I do not necessarily refer to myself in either gender. I do not reference a he, nor do I a she. This is because I stem from a time where these divisions were not part of your collective understanding and your collective agreement yet. It is also what you are traveling towards.

There is a reason why you have been allowed so far to visit the higher dimensional portal that is Hanaloa San, that is Venus, but have yet found yourselves unable to truly travel through it. And this reason can even be found within your physical construct. It has to do with the duality that you choose for, that you decide to exist in, a duality which I do not need to remind you, does not affect a tonal being. These types of duality, such as the left and right hemisphere of the brain, the differences between gender identification (male and female), the dualistic opposites that you describe within your emotional field and all of these things, did not touch a being, such as myself.

The Hanaloa Portal

Again, there is no judgment on any of this, but I do urge you to find spaces, at least within your three kakric objects, that are untainted, that are not contaminated by these ideas. It is only when you step into this that the full Hanaloa portal will open up to you. The watcher function that serves this solar system and that is my consciousness, is not just there to protect all of you from the so-called matrix reality — and you have no idea how much you have been protected from this and how far it truly could have gone, would we have lost any of the archetypal battles that took place in the past — it is also there to protect you from what is beyond it. The moment you would leave through the Hanaloa portal, the Lotus shaped geometrical portal that has a 1044 vector amount instilled in it, as it reads the vector of each of your kakric fields, would very easily blow up your consciousness at the level where you choose to let it exist. Imagine a technological device, such as a radio or a computer that would be plugged into an electrical grid that is too high for its own voltage, this is indeed what would happen to you if you travel through the Venusian portal without learning about these things and how to control these things first.

Again, I urge you to realize that sexuality is one way to move above and beyond these limitations. And when I use that word sexuality, of course, I am not merely referencing the many physical acts, whichever act would be the one you prefer and whichever being would be the one you prefer and whichever gender identification would be the one you prefer does not matter in this case, simply because I am not only referencing the physical act. I am referencing sexuality within the kakra system.

And this is indeed a very different experience than the one you are used to. First of all, it is a continuous experience. It is not something that is quickly born out of friction and dies very quickly afterwards. It is an experience of levity that continues to increase because of an expanding love force coming through your Leia systems at all time, through each and every one of your cellular beings that make up your physical form. This is the type of sexuality I am referencing. And it is not sexuality that you only experience with one other being, nor is it something that you only experience with yourself. It is indeed an experience that can be had with all of life around you.

The act of Hanaloha, therefore, is a continuous act of being in an orgasmic state, caused by each of the three kakras, as you decide to continue to expand them. Once your expansion reaches a certain speed, which is often called the speed of joy or the speed of consciousness, the act of Hanaloha kicks in. You will know it when it hits you. When you decide to drop everything that is 3rd dimensional matrix limited and rather instead to embrace all of these things that are beyond the scope of your current lifetime and what you believe that lifetime to be.

Once this speed has been obtained, the portal of Da Hanaloha San opens up to you, and this can be as early as right now. In fact, it has been open for quite a while, but few have chosen to travel through it. The activation of the Hanaloha field within you is reflected in matrix mental realms as the kundalini rising, which, of course, is a very dualistic version of the same thing. This is not what is in store for you.

Once the Leia systems in the core of all of your physical points, known as cells, is complete, the activation of the Hanaloha system will commence. This is when the Merkabah, triggered by the kakra system, will achieve its full spin rate. I will not go into details about this; others will at some other point in the near future of your current reality perspective, as you go through this series of talks that are now ahead — and there are quite a few ahead for those who are ready to listen. Once these systems are activated, exploration in earnest can begin.

One of the earliest steps to take, is within the first kakra, the Akonai-da, where your current brain, balanced between left and right hemispheres, must merge together as one. Your current personality, your 3D personality and everything that you consider to be your ego, your mind and the memories, your preferences — everything that you have lived — is stored in an inverted geometrical structure in the left hemisphere of the brain. We call this geometrical structure, which is an inversion, we call this a personality. In technical terms, this is called a neural net, the creation of a neural net in the right hemisphere of the brain, with not dualistic but total opponent and tonal opponent opposites of everything that exists. All preferences, all parameters and all such things that exists within the left hemisphere must be created in the right hemisphere in order for the pineal gland and, therefore, a field that you will learn a lot about in the near future — it is truly where the Hanaloo field exists within you — to activate and implode both neural net structures. At that point, the energy will travel into the Akene and into the belly area, the Adonai-ka and will open up your reality field, as you expand and accelerate into the spin vector required to truly see what is out there and what is in here.

When this starts to occur, it is the Hanaloo field that will trigger the activation of your 12 ascended senses, which, in truth, are nothing else but 12 versions of you, 12 personas of you, which each replicate holographically and tonally into 12 and 12 and 12 and so on within their own exploration of toroidal space. As this occurs, you step out of this vibratory range, this vibrational universe, altogether. At that point, it is impossible for you to still be translated within the physical system of reality. The only way you would still be able to visit this reality field at that time is the akeneic light body. But more about that another time.

Now, once again I urge you to understand that creating these steps that I have now spoken of, should not be attempted without an Ascension Teacher, without Ascended Life guiding you through it. A lot of things can happen. This tuition can occur virtually at first, but ultimately must be taken into the so-called physical Merkabah field, as has been touched upon by Da Pah Kwan Yin San earlier.

When this occurs, and you have taken these steps, you will start to notice that many of the physical forms that you know now as the solar system are going to take on very different and varying shapes and functions, compared to what you now know them as. I am one of these.

You Are the Key

There is more to explore, but the core of my message today must be to assist you in understanding as to why these choices, why ascension training, why the ascension path in itself is and are necessary. You cannot fall for the limited perspectives of New Age and even ancient spirituality that would tell you that all you have to do is sit back and receive, or to accept all of the suffering and misery and make meaning out of it, or to simply live in harmony with everyone and all things that are around you, etc.. None of these things are acceptable. They are as much a limiting pattern of belief system that is put upon you, in the same way than is astrology, the retrogrades, the Zodiac, the day and night cycle, the physical universe and all of its physical laws itself. And you have a very simple choice to make. Keep believing in these things, and you will believe yourself to death. Stop believing in these things, get on board of ascension training, and you will liberate yourself and raise yourself to life.

And it is to life that I stand at attention, that I stand to guard, to watch, to observe, and to assist. Believe me when I say that I will speak again. Believe me when I say that when we get to know each other and your Hanaloha systems will have been activated, you will get to know a very different side to me. But then, at the same time, that goes for you as well.

I hope that soon from now, you will drop your final mask. I hope that soon from now, you will shut down the charade, you will close the curtain on what came before and you will truly step with us into the expansion of your soul, a path of ascension that now opens up again after a 35'000 year battle that we won for you and for you alone.

We are honored to be part of your cosmic nature, your cosmic heritage. We are honored to invite you to join the Order of the Loa, or the Order of the Lotus, and to travel with us into the spaces replicated and expanded upon 1044 times that are ahead as you travel through me, the portal of love.

What you will find on the other side, even though I cannot go into specifics, as I have said at the beginning, is that many await our assistance. This virus known as matrix reality, albeit heavily defeated, still rages in certain areas, albeit so that in this particular time/space continuum, you are the last to be liberated. This means not so for everywhere else. We need you. We expect you to do the right thing, to do the honorable thing, to do the conscious thing. Pull away the mask. Let the master emerge. Find the teacher that is ready to assist you in stepping up to the plate and never look back.

You hold the key. You are the key, and it is time to unlock the door.

This being said, this portal will speak to you again soon in the days ahead. Until I do so, mark this moment. Lock it in. Put it in your heart and let it replicate everywhere.

I wish you well. I wish you love. I wish you life. Namaste.

And so it expands.

Outro & Some First Responses

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Hi everybody. I hope everybody is still with us. Oh, you look tanned all of a sudden! Must be because of the light or something.

Well, I think I want you to say a few words if you don't mind. I am still sort of collecting pieces of me.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yes, before we even came on the air, we knew that it was going to be a quick outro, if you like, because of the energy, the depth and the richness of the energy is so thick and all encompassing. It feels like I am a little bit under water and speaking very slowly. It is interesting. I look forward to hearing how you guys have experienced that. I am sure that it will be very different to the sun. It was extremely different for me.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: It felt different.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Yes, indeed. Maybe we should wrap it up.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Yes, in a nice blanket and put it away somewhere for tomorrow, not tomorrow, but a few days.

Yes, why don't we do that. I could say a hundred things, but I could also just read some of your comments, which I think I am just capable of doing.

These is Coca San here, who says, "I felt such excitement and anticipation, as soon as you turned off the camera for a few seconds. My heart pounding, immediately connected to this being. The word that kept listening, that kept coming in was 'home.' The information delivered felt as if I already knew it. For me personally, it was especially deep, enlightening, and beautiful. I know for such more it will be revealed as the information is integrated. My heart is still pounding," she says, "and I feel tears of joy, as if I talked with my true family. Many bodies vibrating throughout the channeling, is the best way to put it and images kept flashing in my inner vision." I mean, these are a lot of experiences that people are having here. "It was such an amazing experience, as I felt my toroid being infused with energy. Wow, thank you. We just have to unlearn everything we have been taught indeed."

And that was just one of you that said that! Imagine what everyone else is feeling! Da Lieve San from Belgium is with us. Again, welcome! She says, "Astonishing, mind blowing, inspiring and a very strong speech. Thank you. I am so glad I could join. Very, very believable," she says.

Da Ciro San is simply writing 'LOL' at the moment. He is laughing out loud, which I think is a good response to all of this. And a lot of people are commenting here. Da Elisabete Baptista San — hello, Elisabete San — it is the first time we actually speak to her, I believe, during this broadcast. She says, "Whoa! In wonderment of Da Hanalooa San." And then she says, "Passcode: Family."

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: It was deeply moving, deeply stirring. A real call put out to everybody as well, those who want to go forward.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: The Order of the Loa is born! That is one of the few things that is back in the meantime. But I could sit here and continue stammering. I believe that we are now two hours into the broadcast, Pahdasanan'ka. So, what we are going to do, is we are going to let you be with yourselves for a little while and... oh, I just see here that Elisabete Baptista San is actually Yukia San! I thought you felt familiar!

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Oh, that is the same! Okay!

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: That is good to know. One last remark I will read here is by Ami San from South Africa. She says, "Da Hanalooa San, what a Jedi knight!" Everybody is going with the Star Wars metaphors since Leia San turned you on to all of that.

Again, thank you for being with us today. It was a remarkable two hours, which again I will not forget ever, ever! I look forward to reading and experiencing what your side of the coin was during all of this. I will work, of course, very quickly to get this episode uploaded to the Webinar Lounge for you to experience again, and I would like to remind you one last time that episode 4 of the Solar Activations will take place January 10 and episode 5 January 16 with a potential episode 6 where we will conclude by overviewing all of your questions, remarks, experiences when you have sent them in.

I would also like to remind you once again to share this news of what is happening here far and wide, to invite your friends and your extended soul family to join in and to make this expansion of the Merkavah as real as we can get it to be in this time that is now ahead of us.

So, thank you once again — and the last words are for the Pahdasan'ka.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Well, I think all that remains for me to say, thank you to all of you guys for participating. Thank you to the energy of Venus talking through Da Pah Kwan Yin San, and thank you very deeply also. Thanks a lot.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Thank you. Well, we are all thanking one another.

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: There is a lot to be thankful for.

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Are we having a Hanaloa experience here?

Da Pahdasan'ka Barak Solarys San: Could be!

Da Pah Kwan Yin San: Well, anyway, I think we have got exciting times ahead. I thank all of you as well for having made these choices and for continuing to make the choices, as you put one foot in front of the previous one, as you allow one heartbeat to expand upon the next and as you sojourn bravely into the universe, into the cosmos, becoming the universal beings that you have always been destined to be.

Namaste, see you for the next episode and have a good time in the meantime. Bye!
